Will your child be ready for school?

With Primrose[®], he will be.

Our son has been attending Primrose since he was twelve weeks old. We've been able to see him grow and develop, leaps and bounds. From signing to speaking and crawling to walking, Primrose has been there with us and for us. His manners are great, he says please and thank you. His speech is clear, and he talks in phrases and sentences. We're proud to be a Primrose family.

Mother Nature's Wrath

The Year That Wasn't...

Each year, Dan Patch Days is put on by many dedicated board members, committee members and volunteers. In 2013, severe and unexpected weather struck the event with a fury on Friday, June 20, 2013.

As with any year, Dan Patch Days organizers and emergency management personnel had a constant eye on weather forecasts. No major storms were predicted, and communication with weather watchers in neighboring communities hinted that – at the most – passing showers may be in store. Dark clouds continued to approach. At the first sight of lightening, the band stopped playing and organizers prepared to evacuate the park. Within seconds, 64 mph winds and rain ensued – sending park guests and volunteers running for shelter at the nearby Public Works building.

When the storm had passed, board and committee members returned to the park to assess the situation. Thankfully, there were no injuries to our guests or volunteers. However, the park didn't fair as well. Several tents were damaged, the power was out and the park grounds were water logged. It was immediately evident the night's activities could not continue.

The board met the following morning to discuss how to proceed. The park grounds, still soggy from the previous night's deluge, were turning to mud as volunteers cleaned up damaged tents and debris. While power had been restored to Community Park and the surrounding area, thousands of homes and businesses in the area were without electricity and there was no promise that it would be restored soon.

With heavy hearts and using the best information available at the time, the board decided to reduce the risks and cancel the remaining activities.

To ensure the ongoing success and sustainability of our community celebration as well as the safety of our guests, you will experience a few changes with respect to park access beginning this year...Most notably, coolers and outside food and beverages will no longer be permitted in the park the entire weekend. With exciting bands, family activities, great food and fun planned, Dan Patch Days is set to highlight what makes Savage a great community. Enjoy Dan Patch Days 2014 and we look forward to seeing you during this year's celebration!

Craft Beer Tent!

Sponsored by Cornerstone Copy Center & Primrose School of Savage

For the craft beer enthusiasts in the crowd, your Dan Patch Days experience has just been kicked up a notch or two! It's hard to believe that this event could get any better. Awesome live music, a variety of foods and beverages to pick from, as well as entertainment for the young and young at heart. But this year the Dan Patch Brew Crew upped the ante by opening a Craft Beer Tent. Of course, you will still be able to get your old domestic favorites. For those looking for a more robust beer flavor, be sure to "hop" on over and check out our wide variety of craft beer. We can't reveal the flavors just yet, some things just need to "brew" over time!

As a friendly reminder the Dan Patch Days Organization asks that anyone attending the event that will be drinking, please drink responsibly and identify a designated driver to ensure the safety of all.

NEW 2014 Dan Patch Days Button! Buy one today and join the Hunt for the Horseshoe!

With the sale of the Dan Patch Days button and the first clue for the Horseshoe Hunt, residents know that Dan Patch Days is approaching! Clues will appear on the Dan Patch Historical Society website, www.danpatch.com, and the Savage Pacer, five weeks before the event to find the hidden horseshoe located on public property. The finder receives $100 and an opportunity to ride in the grand parade. The button and the hunt are sponsored by the Dan Patch Historical Society with the clue master being one of its members.
