

COMMEMORATIVE BUTTON—
Sponsored by Dan Patch Historical Society

Buy your commemorative 2007 Dan Patch Days button for $3 each.

They are available at:

- Savage City Hall
- Savage Public Library
- Savage American Legion
- Marketplace Liquors
- Neisen's Bar and Grill
- First Community Bank
- D. Fong's
- Razor's Edge Barber Shop

You can win an extra $100 if you find the hidden horseshoe and are a registered button holder. Button holders are also eligible to win an Intarsia—an inlaid wooden keepsake replica of this year's button design—or a full Savage historical blanket. Winners will be announced at Community Park on Saturday, June 23, during a music break.

VOLUNTEER TO JOIN THE FUN!

What better way to get a front row seat to the festivities than to volunteer with your friends, family, or neighbors? Dan Patch Days is a successful and growing festival, mainly due to many individuals and businesses who volunteer to help. It takes hundreds of volunteer hours to make the event a success, and opportunities abound for people of all abilities and interests—starting at just a few hours of commitment. Go to www.danpatchdays.org for a complete list of openings, and simple signup form. Or call the Chamber of Commerce office at 952-894-8876.

SHUTTLE SERVICE AVAILABLE—
We're taking the hassle out of parking!

A FREE shuttle service will help get people to Dan Patch Days quickly, conveniently, and safely. Continuous service will run Saturday from 3 to 11 p.m. on the half hour. Riders can meet the shuttle at the lower parking lot at Prior Lake High School in Savage at 7575 W. 150th Street, and will be dropped off right at Community Park. Multiple shuttles will run during peak times, like after the fireworks.
