

Dan Patch NEWS

Special events at library

July 22nd, 2006

The Dan Patch Historical Society and the Savage Friends of the Library are sponsoring a special event on Sunday, July 30 at the Savage Public Library.

At 1 p.m., the Friends will be unveiling at the library four new intarsia pieces that they commissioned Jim Ryan to create. Two of the new pieces are of historic significance, one is patriotic and one will appeal to children. Jim is the intarsia artist who resides in Savage and created the pieces hanging on the wall behind the checkout desk at the library. He also creates and donates the intarsia piece that is the prize for the button drawing each year at Dan Patch Days. The public is invited to the ceremony.

At 2 p.m., Tim Brady, author of the "The Great Dan Patch and the Remarkable Mr. Savage" will be reading excerpts from his book. The DVD that accompanies the book will be available for viewing. Copies will be available for purchase with proceeds benefiting the Dan Patch Historical Society.

Join us for an opportunity to meet Jim Ryan and Tim Brady. Refreshments will be served.

The Dan Patch Historical Society proudly works to keep the heritage of this community alive. This bi-weekly feature is a partnership with the Dan Patch Historical Society and the Savage Pacer. Information is provided by the historical society. For more information on the city's history, go to www.danpatch.com.