

COMMEMORATIVE BUTTON—
Sponsored by Dan Patch Historical Society

Buy your commemorative 2008 Dan Patch Days button for $3 each.

They are available at:

- Savage City Hall
- Savage Public Library
- Savage American Legion
- Marketplace Liquors
- Dan Patch Coffee Depot
- Razor's Edge Barber Shop

You can win $100 if you find the hidden horseshoe and are a registered button holder. Button holders are also eligible to win an Intarsia—an inlaid wooden keepsake replica of this year's button design—and a full Savage historical blanket. Winners will be announced at Community Park on Saturday, June 21, during a music break.

VOLUNTEER TO JOIN THE FUN!

What better way to get a front row seat to the festivities than to volunteer with your friends, family, or neighbors? Dan Patch Days is a successful and growing festival, mainly due to many individuals and businesses who volunteer to help. It takes hundreds of volunteer hours to make the event a success, and opportunities abound for people of all abilities and interests—starting at just a few hours of commitment. Go to www.danpatchdays.org for a complete list of openings, and simple signup form. Or call the Chamber of Commerce office at 952-894-8876.

SHUTTLE SERVICE AVAILABLE—
We're taking the hassle out of parking!

A FREE shuttle service will help get people to Dan Patch Days quickly, conveniently, and safely. Continuous service will run Saturday from 3 to 11 p.m. on the half hour from various locations within Savage. Please visit the Dan Patch Days website for more information on pickup/dropoff locations at www.danpatchdays.org.
